

Stanford P.I.E.

Stanford Physics, Identity, and Equity 2024

Program dates: Thurs Oct. 17th – Sat. Oct. 19th, 9am – 12pm (PDT)
Application deadline: Sun. Oct. 6th

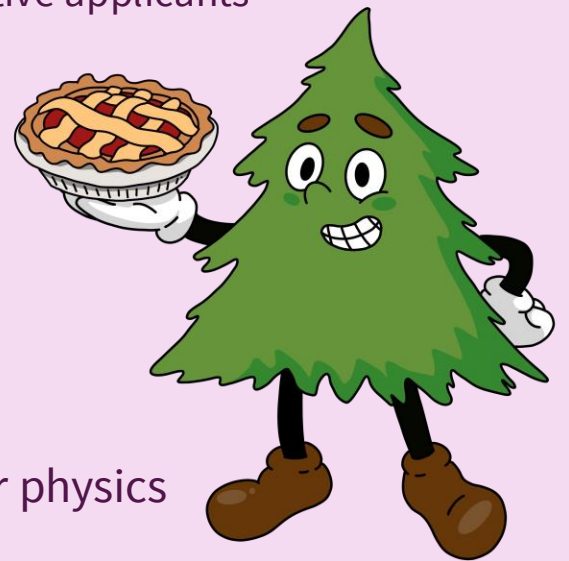

The goal of this program is to support candidates from underrepresented groups in physics who aspire to apply to doctoral programs and become future leaders in the scientific community

This 3-day virtual program will provide prospective applicants with information and guidance on:

- the graduate student experience
- PhD application process
- various research interests at Stanford

Students will have the opportunity to interact directly with Stanford faculty, postdocs, and grad students!

We welcome students who plan to apply for physics PhD programs this year.

Further information about the program can be found here: <https://physics.stanford.edu/inclusion/stanford-pie>

Participation in this program will not influence admission decisions for any Stanford graduate program.
