

 Universidad de los Andes
Facultad de Ciencias

BOGOTÁ - COLOMBIA

DEPARTAMENTO DE MATEMÁTICAS

OPEN POSITIONS 2017

Assistant Professor

Universidad de Los Andes is Colombia's most renowned private university with a dynamic and diverse mathematics department. Currently the Universidad de Los Andes is ranked among the top ten universities in Latin America according to the QS University Ranking 2015/16.

The Department of Mathematics at Universidad de Los Andes invites applications for a tenure-track position at the assistant professor level starting in January 2017. Applications in all areas of pure and applied mathematics will be considered.

The successful candidate must have a Ph.D. degree in mathematics or a closely related area (applied mathematics, statistics or operations research) awarded at least one year before the beginning of the appointment. He or she must show a strong potential in research and teaching and a strong commitment to both is expected. The teaching load is two courses per semester, but may be reduced to one course in the first semester. Research funds are available.

The starting date of the appointment, pending administrative approval, is January 2017. To receive full consideration, complete applications must be received by September 18, 2016.

A complete application consists of:

1. Cover letter. The letter must contain the names of the writers of the recommendation letters.
2. Curriculum Vitae.
3. Research statement.
4. Teaching statement.
5. At least three (3) letters of recommendation, to be submitted by the reference writers to jobsmath@uniandes.edu.co, clearly stating the full name of the candidate. One of these letters should address the teaching skills of the applicant explicitly.
6. AMS Cover Sheet (if available).

For additional information about the position, please contact us by email to jobsmath@uniandes.edu.co. Late applications will be considered until the position is filled. All complete applications received by September 18, 2016 will receive full consideration.

The documents can be sent in electronic form (as .pdf files) to jobsmath@uniandes.edu.co or in paper to:
