

The DeSK project was established to promote international cooperation in higher education by integrating innovation, sustainability and digital transformation. Led by the University of Bari and with 10 Italian universities and 68 partner universities, DeSK aims to promote internationalization, through mobility activities, research, training and advanced skills development.

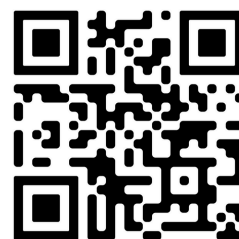

Who can participate?

Students and researchers who are awarded our fellowship by Gen 2026

University of Salerno contacts for more information piotto@unisa.it - gpagliari@unisa.it

www.tne-desk.org